Pastor's Corner

My Dear Parishioners,

In this morning's gospel we find the first disciples dispirited and terrified after the death of Jesus. They have to confront their failure to be faithful to Jesus in the hour of his passion and death. They are in a huddle, having locked themselves away in a room. Suddenly Jesus stands among them and says to them, 'Peace be with you' and breathes the Holy Spirit upon them. The risen Lord was reconciling his failed disciples to himself; they came to recognize themselves as forgiven, and so, their hearts were filled with joy. Having experienced the gift of the Lord's forgiveness, they are sent out in the power of the Spirit to offer to others the gift of forgiveness they have received. 'Those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven.'

That gift and mission is given to all of us who have been baptized into the risen Jesus. Having been reconciled to the Lord we are all sent out as ministers of reconciliation. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is, of course, a privileged moment of reunion, when we receive anew the Lord's forgiveness and extend that forgiveness to those who have hurt us. However, there are other, more frequent, moments of reconciliation: the daily forgiveness of our brothers and sisters; the speaking of the hard words, 'I am sorry'; and the gracious acceptance of another's offer of apology. In these moments, Jesus is standing in our midst, helping us to break out of situations that can be draining of life for everyone involved. Peace be with you and...

Keep smiling,

Fr. Jacob

DEVINE MERCY SUNDAY

During the Mass of canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000, Pope John Paul II (who often quoted Our Lord by starting with "Jesus said to St. Faustina.") proclaimed: "Divine Mercy! This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity."

The Divine Mercy image portrays, in the two rays, the sacraments of Baptism, Confession, and the Eucharist. The focus on this Sunday has always been on the institution of confession and the need to trust and believe in Jesus to receive grace (blessings). Remember these words of Jesus, "I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (699)

The 10 o'clock Mass on Easter Sunday morning indeed had a "full house." As the children accepted Fr. Jacob's invitation to join him around the altar for the Lord's Prayer one wondered where he would put them all. Nonetheless, fit they did; then returned to the pews bringing with them the Sign of Easter Peace to family and friends.

Following Mass, and fortuitously nestled between a day of rain and a day of snow, St. Sylvester Parish Family's Annual Easter Egg Hunt welcomed over 100 children and grandchildren for a splendidly successful event.

Men of the Holy Name Society had set up Easter-themed display characters and our ever-helpful friends at Lifestyles for the Disabled prepared many dozens of surprised-filled eggs. These were craftily 'hidden' throughout the Grotto and Prayer Garden by the Youth Group with their moderator, Neal Steiniger. The young people were also available to guide the youngest 'hunters' in their searches. There was a surprise bonus found during the children's hunt—in addition to this year's Golden Prize Egg, the never-found 2017 Golden Egg was discovered by one of Richie Salinardi's grandsons and both children won prizes! Lastly, lest the adults feel neglected, Janet Samuel prepared splendidly filled gift baskets to be raffled off.

All in all, an outstanding beginning to our Easter day!
