Pastor's Corner

My Dear Parishioners,

In Ireland and the United Kingdom, Mother's Day is over. "Mothering Sunday" was on the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Long ago, people were freed from work to travel on this day to the parish where they were baptized, their "Mother Church." Often, people were reunited with their mothers on this day. Employers would release their workers and servants for this visit. The American celebration, while based on this custom, really has to do with an anti-war movement of mothers in Civil War times. They crusaded for better sanitary conditions for their sons. When President Wilson instituted the first Mother's Day in 1912, it was a day to fly the flag in honor of mothers whose children had died in battle. Knowing the tradition is a good balance to our celebration today. We can enfold in prayer the mothers who have suffered the loss of their children in war and other tragedies.

We should also hold in prayer the aunts, step-mothers and loving women who have opened generous hearts and lives to nurture the children God has guided into their lives.

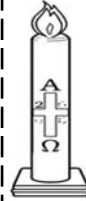

Just as Christ gave His Mother to St. John for us all and forever, God chooses and gives each of us a mother to bring his love to us.

For those who are lucky to still have our mothers with us, this is a blessing. For those who aren't, we may find this is also beautiful. Your mother is always with you. She lives inside your laughter. She's the smell of certain foods you remember. She's the place you came from, your first home, and she's the guide you follow with every step you take. She is your first love, your first friend, even your first enemy, but nothing on earth can separate you. Not time, not space . . . not even death!

Happy Mother's Day and keep smiling,

Fr. Jacob

Are you are celebrating your wedding anniversary of 25, 50 or more years during this current year? Our parish family would like to honor this anniversary in your life. On Sunday, June 3rd at the 10 o'clock Mass, the anniversary couples will be invited as a group to renew their vows and receive a blessing. After the Mass there will be a light lunch for the couples and their guests. Please contact the Parish Office if you and your spouse would like to be a part of this anniversary celebration.
